

Rules and Regulations

EMAILS

All RAA Members group emails are intended for the discussion of issues related to rental property. Posts are to be courteous and civil. No personal criticism of other members is permitted. Any and all offensive comments about race, gender, age, disabilities, religious beliefs, sexual orientation or national origin are strictly prohibited.

Determination whether any email is in violation of this policy will be determined by a majority vote of the RAA board of directors. Violations will result in a warning to the offending member. A second violation will result in a suspension of email privileges for 30 days. Any additional violations will result in suspension of email privileges for a longer period of time as determined by a majority vote of the RAA board of directors.

Adopted April 19, 2016